There may be a better climate than Kentucky in May, but where is it?

The Anchor line steamer Transylvania is now nearing the war zone, and all Southern Ireland is excited.

The Southern Baptist Convention at Houston, Texas, unanimously approved President Wilson's international relations policy.

Kentucky is represented at the Southern Baptist Convention by 76 of the 401 delegates to which she is entitled. The next convention will be at Asheville, N. C.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt, lost on the Lusitania, was a survivor of the Titanic disaster three years ago. For him the German torpedo proved to be more deadly than the iceberg.

A big discussion is on between Elkton and Cadiz papers as to which is the better town, and Sunday school attendance is used as an argument. Elkton had 402 and Cadiz 464 and now comes the Pembroke Journal with a claim of 487 and a conclusion that Pembroke is a better town than either of the county seats.

The Prohibition party of Kentucky, of which Mrs. Francis E. Beauchamp is chairman and Julia R. Glenn secretary, has been called to meet in State convention at Louisville, May 25, to consider the nomination of a state ticket. The Republicans meet June 15. We "disremember" just what date has been set for the Democratic convention.

Shelbyville may be a little slow, but Editor Ed Shinnick is to be congratulated upon the pulling off of a bran new stunt in his sleepy little town. Wednesday night, Miss Hester McCormack and Mr. Paul Arterburn were the principals in a "garden wedding," which took place out in the garden among the growing flowers and green things. Killarney roses were much in evidence. Nice stunt, girls. Some of you June brides try it here.

Jim Lemon, of the Mayfield Messenger, is off on a junket to California, and the boys are saying some things in his paper that will give Jeems a case of dry grins when he reads them. Here is one of them:

"Hon. A. O. Stanley is in Fulton today and is scheduled to pay Mayfield a visit while in this end of the state. He is exceedingly popular in Mayfield and has a strong following not only in the city but in Graves county. He always receives a hearty greeting in Mayfield and this time it will be exceptionally pleasant for his admirers to meet him for there are already numbers of people who voted against him in his race last year for United States senator who are enthusiastically for him this time. He is receiving great receptions wherever he has been."

To San Francisco.

An unusually good opportunity presents itself for those who are planning to go to the Panama Exposition. Dr. John H. Eager, who has had very extensive experience in travel and in conducting parties, is organizing a party to leave Hopkinsville about June 28. Everything will be first class, with private Pullman all the way. The party will consist chiefly of Kentucky people. For full particulars address Dr. John H. Eager, care Mrs. B. F. Eager, Bethel College, Hopkinsville, Ky.

TOBACCO IS BOOMING

The Receipts Are Way Above A Million Pounds This Week.

PRICES SHOW MORE STRENGTH

Fine Season Has Started Planting Operations On All Sides.

This has been one of the largest tobacco weeks of the year. The loose floors have been heavily patronized, the receipts running to 750,000 lbs. The factories have been equally busy receiving crops on contracts and taken altogether it has been perhaps the banner week of the season.

Prices have remained firm, with increasing strength. Probably $100,000 has been paid out for tobacco at the various houses handling it in different ways.

Encouraging reports are now coming in from the country. The rains have brought up the dormant seed in many plant beds and the young plants are growing like weeds. Those with plenty of plants are dividing with their neighbors and some of the crop is being set out. Some farmers report as much as 30 acres already planted. As the planting season will last at least 30 days longer, the crop is quite likely to be a heavy one in acreage.

The schedule of the prices for the week was as follows:

Trash $2.50 to $3.75
Lugs $4.00 " $5.75
Com Leaf $5.00 to $8.50
Med Leaf $7.00 to $9.50
Good Leaf $9.00 to $12.50

MOUNTAIN TIGRESS

Mrs. Columbia Howard, of Martin County, Slays Husband When Accused.

Inez, Ky., May 14.—Accused by her husband of improper relations with her uncle, Ed Guage, Mrs. Columbia Howard, thirty-five years old, followed her spouse, Jack Howard, forty-one years old, into the yard of their home at Pilgrim, on Wolfe creek, and blew off the top of his head with a shotgun. The murdered man's face was badly powder burned and his brains scattered by the load. The wife is in jail here.

A quarrel arose between man and wife because of a carress bestowed on Mrs. Howard by her uncle. The husband accused his wife of having been unduly familiar with Guage. Authorities are seeking the latter on a charge of being implicated in the killing.

Sheriff J. E. Maynard and Jailer Garfield Cassidy arrested Mrs. Howard at the home of Lewis Nichols, a neighbor, where the woman had gone after the killing. She has seven children, ranging in age from one and a half to eleven years. Mrs. Howard was a Harmon before her marriage and the Harmons figured conspicuously in feud troubles with the Hatfields and McCoy's.

CONCRETE PORCH

At Bethel College Put In By Alumnae Association.

With the money realized from Tag Day, the ladies of the Alumnae Association of Bethel College have made some notable improvements this week. The principal one is that the brick floor in the big porch, 15 by 54 feet, in front has been replaced with concrete. The buttresses holding the flight of stone steps have been covered with concrete and the steps themselves have been put in good condition. The ladies had some money left, which was expended on interior decorations.

WILSON SENDS HIS DEMAND

Nation Will Maintain Rights of Its Citizens, Germany Is Told.

MUST GIVE GUARANTIES.

Just, Prompt and Enlightened Action by Germany Expected, Says Note.

Washington, May 14.—The United States government last night cabled Ambassador Gerard for presentation to the German government a note calling attention "to the grave situation which has resulted" from violation of American rights on the high seas, culminating in the sinking of the Lusitania with a loss of more than 100 American lives.

The communication expresses the confident expectation of the United States complaints; that they will make reparation so far as reparation is possible for injuries which are without measure, and that they will take immediate steps to prevent the recurrence of anything so obviously subversive of the principles of warfare for which the imperial German government in the past so wisely and so firmly contended.

In its conclusion, the note states:

PROMPT ACTION EXPECTED.
"The government and people of the United States look to the Imperial German government for just, prompt and enlightened action in this vital matter with the greater confidence because the United States and Germany are bound together not only by special ties of friendship, but also by the explicit stipulation, of the treaty of 1828 between the United States and the Kingdom of Prussia.

"Expression of regret and offers of reparation in the case of the destruction of neutral ships sunk by mistake, while they may satisfy international obligations, if no loss of life results, cannot justify or excuse a practice, the natural and necessary effect of which is to subject neutral nations and neutral persons to new and immeasurable risks.

"The Imperial German government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment."

BOTH FEET ARE CUT OFF

Albert Tally, Col., Found Badly Mutilated On L. & N. Track.

Albert Tally, col., was run over by an L. & N. train near the river Wednesday night and both feet were cut off. He was also badly injured about the head, one ear being torn off.

He was found soon afterwards and removed to his home on First street, and given surgical attention, but his injuries necessarily fatal.

Tally made a statement to Lieut. Hawkins in which he said two white men had attacked him and robbed him, after which they threw him under an approaching freight train. He could give no description of the men, except to say that one man was tall and the other low and stout.

He died at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. The body was shipped to Pryors, Graves county, from which place he came here.

Little Girl Hurt.

Little Miss Annie Lee Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Morrow, stepped in a hole in Twelfth street Wednesday night and sustained a painful injury. A bad cut required surgical attention, but fortunately no bones were broken.

Lowry was 76 years of age and was twice married. He is survived by his second wife and by seven children. One of his daughters is the wife of Rev. H. C. Gill, of Louisville. Col. Lowry was a leading member, once an officer, of Olivet Baptist church.

In his early life he was a practicing attorney but for many years he had lived on his fine farm between Garrettsburg and Lafayette.

The funeral will be held at two o'clock this afternoon. In the absence of his pastor, who is at Houston, Texas, the arrangement had not been made yesterday. The interment will be in the Moss burying ground.

CONSCRIPTION FOR ENGLAND

Universal Service Throughout Kingdom is Considered by Government.

BRITISH SHIPS TORPEDOED

Five Hundred Men Are Lost When Goliath is Sunk in the Dardenelles.

London, May 14.—Viscount Haldane, lord high chancellor, in the house of lords intimated that the government was considering the necessity of resorting to conscription.

Of developments the most important is that in which the French are carrying out from Arras to the point where their lines join the British and in which they continue to meet with unvarying success. They report again today the capture—which the Germans admit—of strongly fortified positions and one road at least which the Germans have been using to bring up reinforcements to their positions near La Basse. Therefore, it is believed here the French successes will lighten the pressure the Germans are bringing to bear on the British around Ypres.

The German-Austro offensive continues in western Galicia, where the Russians have been driven forty miles back from their old positions and to within twenty-five miles of Przemyśl. The fighting, however, has become less intense. The Germanic allies estimate their captures at some 150,000 men, 69 guns and 255 machine guns.

The Russians claim that they are in a position to prevent a further advance by the Germans and Austrians, but as it is they have lost much ground.

In eastern Galicia the Russians assert that as a result of their new offensive the Austrians have commenced a disorderly retreat. Fighting continues in Courland and in the neighborhood of the Niemen river.

Another battleship, the Goliath, the third the British have lost since the attack on the Dardenelles began, has been torpedoed by the Turks and of the crew of 700 or more only 180, including 20 officers, were saved. While the Goliath was an old vessel, she was useful for the work to which she had been assigned and the loss in men is serious.

There is some consolation to the British in other news from the Dardanelles that a British submarine, in a dash into the sea of Marmora, torpedoed two Turkish gunboats and a large transport. This probably is the submarine the Turks thought they had sunk but which apparently got back through the mine-strewn passage.

OPERATION WAS SUCCESS

The Condition of Mrs. Charles Boyd Regarded as Most Favorable.

Mrs. Charles Boyd, who underwent a surgical operation at her home near Newstead, Sunday, is reported as getting along nicely, with prospects of an early recovery. Mrs. Boyd had been quite ill for some time and it became necessary to perform an operation. Her condition is regarded as so favorable that unless complications arise she will be able to be up in a short while.

Various Suez Canals.

The Suez canal is not the first canal
to join the Red sea and the Mediterranean, according to a bulletin issued by the National Geographic society.
The Egyptians, it is stated, in 1350-1300 B. C., constructed such a canal.
In the course of time it was choked with sand. Another canal was begun by Necho about 600 B. C. and completed a century later. Trajan restored this canal. When Napoleon visited Egypt, he planned to reopen
the old canal, but was forced to abandon the project. It remained for De Lesseps to repeat the engineering triumph of the ancient Egyptians on a vaster scale.

TREATING HOGS FOR CHOLERA

Summary of Results Obtained From Use of Serum Are Interesting
as Well as Valuable.(By GEORGE H. GLOVER, Colorado Experiment Station.)In a recent report of the chief of the bureau of animal industry, a summary of the results obtained from the use of serum are interesting and valuable as indicating the usefulness of serum in infected herds.Of 16,152 hogs, where 70 per cent were sick with cholera and the serum was given to all of them, only 24.3 per cent died. Without the serum a loss of 75 per cent might have been expected. The value of the serum as a cure is apparent. In 11,776 hogs that were well when given the serum
but kept in herds with sick hogs, there was a loss of 2.9 per cent, while in a total of 13,578 hogs that were healthy,
then given the serum, and later exposed to cholera, there was a loss of only a little over one-half of one per cent.In the record kept by the Colorado Agriculture college, we find that in the San Luis valley, where hogs were not given the serum until the disease appeared, there was a loss of about 22 per cent.

INDIVIDUAL HOUSE FOR HOGS

Among Other Advantages They Are Light, Easily Moved to Fresh Soil
—Easy to Construct.The individual hog house for farrowing, I think, has many advantages over the combination sort, writes C. S.
Bratt of Furnas county, Nebraska, in Independent Farmer.They are light, easily moved from one lot to another, or to fresh soil in the same lot, which is a good preventive of disease.The animal heat from the sow has a greater influence on the temperature in cold weather than in the ordinary combination hog house.I have used individual houses seven feet long, seven feet wide of lumber,
but this year have added some made of galvanized sheet iron nailed on a wooden frame. These are six feet eight inches square at the base. They are warm and dry. I do not consider them as good for warm weather owing to the sun's heat having so much influence on them.Any farmer can make these sheet iron houses, as they are quite simple

Individual Hog House.

In construction. The material cost me $7.50 each. For the frame I selected good 2 by 4 lumber and ripped them in two making 2 by 2. I planned my frame so as to nail all seams of the sheeting over the wood. The galvanized iron I used is 26 gauge, 28 by 36 inches.Use the large-headed galvanized roofing nails.

SOLID TEETH ARE ESSENTIAL.

Look at Ewe's Mouth Before Buying—Full-Mouthed Animal Can Be Used for Breeding.In buying ewes be sure they stand well on their feet and have good straight backs and good mouths.
"Broken-mouthed" ewes, that is, ewes with broken teeth or badly worn down should not be bought.A sheep has one pair permanent in-cisor teeth when it is a year old, two pairs or full mouth at three years old.A full-mouthed ewe can be used for breeding even though she is as much as five years old.

SWINE NOTES.

Use enough litter to keep the pens
dry.When scouring give the pigs a good dose of common baking soda.Keep the pens, troughs and barrels clean. Don't overlook that.It is of importance that the brood sow be kept in a vigorous thrifty condition, not too fat but full of vitality.Feed the brood sow protein foods as much as possible and avoid feeds rich in fat-forming elements.The first requisite in the hog husiness is a good hog house well venilated, set with ends north and south.

Brood Mares.

While the brood mares should not be jammed about and abused, they do require gentle exercise, light driving and moderate work to keep their digestion, respiration and circulation in good, healthy, normal condition. Idleness and inactivity are not conducive to the production of strong, vigorous offspring.

Worth Weight In Gold.

Abingdon, Va.—Mrs. Jennie Mc-Call, of this place, says: "I had been troubled with female complaints, for over ten years. I could not walk or stand on my feet, and had been almost confined to the house for a long time. I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now I can walk anywhere I want to go. Cardui is worth its weight in gold." This is a high estimate on a plain, herb medicine, yet there are thousands of women who would gladly pay this price for a remedy to relieve their suffering. Cardui has helped others. Why not you? Try it.

HABIT OF DROPPING THE CUD

One of Symptoms of Certain Subacute Forms of Indigestion—Carefully Examine Teeth.

(By W. R. GILBERT.)

"Dropping the cud" takes place in certain diseases and conditions of the mouth, where mastication is painful, but it is also one of the symptoms of certain subacute forms of indigestion dependent on bulky and innutritious
food.In some cases the animal is un-thrifty, with irregular bowels and depraved appetite; but these are not so pronounced when the trouble is due to pain in mastication owing to disease of the tongue or mouth, or to dental irregularities.In young bovines, "dropping the cud"
is very often due to the persistence of the crowns of deciduous molars.The animal eats tolerably well, because the food, in the first place, is nipped off by the incisors, twisted around by the tongue and hastily transferred to the first stomach.It is after chewing the cud that the food is subjected to the reduction to minute particles by the molars, the process causing pain, and the ball of food or cud is dropped out of the mouth instead of being laboriously masticated and swallowed.The first thing to do in these cases is to carefully examine the mouth with the aid of a gag and to remove the persisting molar crowns if it is these temporary teeth causing the painful mastication.

ROBBING THE MILK BOTTLE

Siphon Invented for Removing Cream
When Desired—Does Its Work
Without Any Loss.The sight of a quantity of rich cream on top of the milk bottle is a sight which few housewives can resist, and they are tempted to remove it and make use of it for one purpose or another.
It is almost impossible to pour the cream off, and usually any effort made to insert a spoon or other implement of this character has the effect of stirring up the crown of cream so that it is lost. The device shown herewith has been recently patented and will draw off all the cream of the bottle without any loss by agitation of the

To Siphon Off Cream.

contents of the bottle during the operation, as with a spoon or pouring.
The siphon is of glass principally, but the lower end is a tube of rubber with one end thrust up into the glass. The bell-shaped end of glass is lowered carefully into the cream, and when in place will about reach the lower part of the stratum of cream. The rubber tube is then closed by pinching and drawn slowly from the glass tube.
This draws the cream up and starts the flow, which continues until all the cream has been drawn off.

Invented in 1589.

The knitting frame was invented in 1589 by William Lee, a graduate of Cambridge university and a native of Woodborough, near Nottingham, England. So perfect was the invention in every detail that to this day the essential features of the machine continue in use for the class of work to which Lee applied it.

EXCELLENT RATION FOR COW

If Farmers Would Depend More on Silage and Less on Pasture Herds
Could Be Doubled.

A good ration for cows giving milk
is silage twice a day, corn fodder once a day and all the bean forage they will clean up, with about one pound grain or concentrate to every three pounds milk the cow gives. If the beans were pulled before becoming too ripe and secured without much rain falling on them, the forage makes good feed.
Roots are valuable to increase the flow of milk.

If we would depend more on silage
and less on pasture, our dairy herds might easily be doubled and the farm enriched accordingly. Many farmers have been slow to awaken to the fact that dairying brings excellent returns.
Many unprofitable crops are still raised where the land might better be growing feed for live stock.

Permanent pasture is a waste unless the land cannot be plowed. Every acre should be made to raise feed for stock to the limit of its capacity, and this should be fed right on the farm,
returning the fertility to the soil.

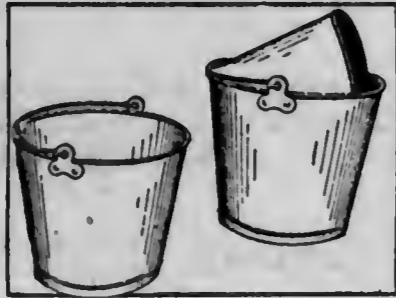

PAIL OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

Where Clean Milk Is Produced Small-
Top Receptacle Is Necessary to Exclude Bacteria.

The United States department of agriculture has this to say about milkings:

"In modern dairies where clean milk is produced the small-top milk pail is a necessity, as such a pail presents only a small opening into which dust and dirt may fall from the air or from the cow's body. It has been found by experience that the use of the small-top pail greatly reduces the number of bacteria in milk from average dairies. Many types of milk pails are for sale, but any tin can convert an ordinary pail into a small-top pail by the addition of a hood, as shown herewith.

Milkers should be allowed to milk
only with dry hands. The practice of wetting the hands with milk is a filthy habit and is liable to cause the Open and Small-Top Pails.

cow's teats to chap in the winter time. Milking should be done quickly and thoroughly, with no violent jerking of the teats. After each cow is milked the pail of milk should be removed immediately to the milk house.

The milker should remember always that he is handling a human food which is very easily contaminated. Soap, clean water and towels must be readily accessible. The hands should be washed after milking each cow.

COTTONSEED MEAL FOR COWS

No Harmful Effects If Fed In Moderate Amounts Along With Variety of Other Feeds.

(By E. G. WOODWARD, Nebraska Experiment Station.)

A Nebraska subscriber writes: "Is the feeding of cottonseed meal harmful to dairy cows if fed right along?"
If cottonseed meal is fed in moderate amounts along with a variety of other feeds, there are no harmful effects.

Ordinarily a cow should not be fed
more than two pounds daily of cottonseed meal. As a usual thing it will not take this amount to properly balance a ration made up of common dairy feeds.

At present prices cottonseed meal is a very cheap source of protein and should undoubtedly be used much more extensively by Nebraska dairymen than it now is.

MUD HOLES IN COW PASTURE

Clean Shore Is Blessing to Fly-Pes-
tered Animals—Many Annoyances Are Avoided.

A cow pasture mud hole is a veritable nuisance. To get away from the flies the cows will wade in the mud until their legs and even their udders become completely plastered. Then added to the annoyance of stamping and kicking at flies at milking time we have the added annoyance of being obliged to milk cows with chapped teats.

A clean lake shore or river or brook in the pasture is a blessing indeed to the fly-pestered cows, but the mud hole should either be drained or fenced out of the pasture. Foul in the foot with cattle, and grease heel with horses, is the result of tramping back and forth from mud holes to dusty grounds.

A Strange Story.

son, in a letter from Argyle, says:
"I was almost wild with pain in my head, and other severe pains, due to womanly troubles. Cardui gave me great relief at once. Further use of Cardui raised me from my bed of agony. Cardui saved my life, and I

it did for me. Whether seriously

HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

GOOD ROADS WILL PAY WELL

In Nine Years Increase in Amount Paid for Improving Highways Has Been Over 250 Per Cent.

(By E. B. HOUSE, Colorado Experiment Station.)

The following is clipped from the Reclamation Record:

Approximately $206,000,000 was spent last year on public roads in the United States, according to statistics prepared by the United States department of agriculture. In 1904 the total was only $79,000,000. In nine years, therefore, the increase has been over 250 per cent.

Of the 2,226,842 miles of roads in the United States, 223,774 miles, or approximately 10 per cent are classed as improved.

To improve the remaining 90 per cent may well seem a big job. It is, in fact, only made possible because the work really pays for itself. From material gathered by the United Gravel Road.

States department of agriculture, it is now possible to prove not only that good roads are profitable investments,
but to determine exactly what dividends they pay. An investigator assigned to this problem in any given locality first ascertains the extent of the territory that is tributary to any main road, much as one might ascertain the territory tributary to some river. The next step is an accurate estimate of the total products of this territory—so much grain, so much tobacco, so much garden truck, etc. Of this quantity a certain portion is consumed on the farm; the rest is shipped over the road in question.

The whole calculation can then be checked by investigators at the shipping point to which the road leads. In general it has been found that the two methods yield much the same information—the total amount of produce hauled over the road. Next the length of the average haul is calculated, the size of the load permitted by the character of the road ascertained,
and the cost of teams and drivers figured. With these facts before him the investigator is now able to state positively the cost of hauling a ton of produce on that road, to express in terms of these "ton-miles" the freight traffic on the road, and finally the total cost to the community served by the road of hauling its goods to market. Armed with these data it is easy to decide how much money can be profitably spent in improving the road and what are the returns that the investment yields to the community.

ADVANTAGES OF GOOD ROADS

Energy of Farmer's Teams Conserved
by Pulling Heavy Loads Over Comparatively Smooth Surface.

There is no doubt that good roads tend to prosperity to the farmers who live on them. Their teams are not worn out with the effort to pull a light load over a bad road, for they easily take a large one to market and save not only the strength of the team and wear of the wagon, but what is of more importance still, the time of the owner.

He gets his product to market more cheaply and that item alone tends to more prosperity. Then, too, the value of his land is increased by the fact that it is on a well-made and well-kept road, for the heaviest tax a farmer pays is bad roads.

Everybody Benefited.

Good roads help not only the farmer
by enabling him to market his produce when the market is highest but they also help the merchant, the railroad company—in fact, every individual in the county is either directly or indirectly benefited.

Important Work.

The public highway and its improvements is one of the important things to take into consideration in planning next year's work. Work on the road along your farm is just as important as work in the field.

Pigs After Weaning.

For pigs after weaning that have the run of alfalfa nothing will help them and satisfy them so well as a good fill of slop made of shorts and about one-tenth of cottonseed meal.
Feed them some kafir or milo on the side as dry grain so as to save some of the expense of having to supply all the concentrated food in the slop.

Records Help Farmers.

If farmers kept books there would be a great many better ones than there are today.

TRIP THROUGH CANAL TOO UNCERTAIN TO RISK

Unlikely the Atlantic Fleet Will Attempt to Make It.

Washington, May 14.—While Secretary Daniels said again tonight that he had not finally determined to abandon the plans for sending the Atlantic fleet through the Panama canal next month to San Francisco, it is now regarded in official circles as virtually certain that the fleet will be kept on the Atlantic coast.

Mr. Daniels had another conference during the day with Capt. Hugh Rodman, marine superintendent of the canal, who told him that although a vessel drawing thirty feet of water could be towed through the waterway at this time, the canal was only being used by day and dredging was going on steadily every night.

Major Gen. Goethals talked with the secretary and it is understood advised that while it would be possible to put the battleships through now, he could give no assurance of what the conditions would be in June and could not promise that the fleet, once through, would not have its return blocked by new slides.

A World Movement of the People, By the People and For the People

APPLYING the words of Lincoln to the Lyceum and Chautauqua, we may truly say that it is a movement "of the people, by the people and for the people," a world movement in which new towns and cities are joining each year with public spirited enthusiasm and growing appreciation of its worth and scope. S. Russell Bridges is the pioneer Lyceum and Chautauqua promoter of the south. About eighteen years ago the work was begun in the southern states with but poor success until Bridges entered the work, associated with the Alkahest Lyceum system. The Lyceum and Chautauqua assemblies had already gained some recognition in other sections, but at that time there was practically no "Lyceum field" in the southern states—only the opportunity. Russell Bridges seized this opportunity where others were failing and has used it for the intellectual, moral and spiritual uplift of the southern people. Eighteen years ago there were but a few scattered Lyceum courses in the south, courageously maintained in the face of opposition, prejudice, apathy and consequently heavy financial loss. No Lyceum bureau of the north had the hardihood then nor the courage to risk money on a general effort to build up the Lyceum in the south. But Bridges, a southern man, at the head of the Alkahest bureau, a southern institution, had both the courage and the determination to win. His system now looks yearly between 800 and 1,000 Lyceum courses and Chautauqua, reaching thousands through the voices of the world's greatest preachers, orators, artists and philosophers, among whom the above celebrities are being offered for the season of 1914-15.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The citizens of Christian county have invited at the instance of Geoffrey Morgan, the county agricultural agents of 22 Central and Eastern Kentucky counties and four representative farmers from each of these counties to be our guests on June 3rd. The purpose being to extend them our hospitality and show them the resources of Christian county. This invitation is far reaching and it has the approval of the agricultural department at Washington as well as the Kentucky department of agriculture, and officials of the Kentucky bureau have accepted, stating that they will be here. Likewise the agents from 17 neighboring counties have been invited to attend. Therefore we request that all those desiring to assist in this hospitality attend a general meeting Monday, May 17th, at 2:30 p. m. at the H. B. M. A., as it has been decided to take this party over the county. All those having cars are especially invited to attend this meeting.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 606 Fourth Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Taft's Support of Wilson.

As between Taft and Roosevelt no one can question which is the greatest ex-president. Mr. Taft has grown immensely since he left the White House. The Indianapolis News very aptly says of Mr. Taft:

"Had Mr. Taft been a member of the Wilson cabinet, he could not have supported the president more heartily, or showed greater confidence in him. Fortunately the support is due and the confidence deserved. The country, therefore, is to be doubly congratulated. For in Mr. Wilson it has precisely the sort of president that it should have at such a time as this, and in Mr. Taft it has an ex-president who has fairly earned their gratitude and respect by his wise and patriotic words in these critical days. Both men are bravely and conscientiously performing the duties that their positions impose on them."

NOTICE.

BOYS' PIG CLUB FOR CHRISTIAN

Rules Laid Down For This Latest Enterprise For Boys and Girls.

Mr. Otis Kercher, State Agent for Pig Clubs, was in Hopkinsville Tuesday, conferring with the County Agent, S. E. Puckett, for the purposes of organizing a Christian County Pig Club among the boys and girls, the purposes of which are as follows:

1. To stimulate an interest in swine production, and to teach the boys and girls how to raise better and cheaper hogs by the use of improved blood and the growing of forage crops.

2. To increase the number of hogs raised on the farm in order that the meat for the home and that required to feed extra farm labor may be produced at home instead of having to be bought.

3. To complement the Boys' Corn Clubs by showing the boys and girls how they can profitably sell their corn through hogs.

4. To teach boys and girls how to judge hogs and how to select them for breeding and market purposes.

5. To instill in the boys and girls while they are young a love for animals which will result in their taking more interest in farm life, and to furnish them at the same time with work that will in a practical way give an insight into the business side of farm life and incite in them a desire to struggle for and to attain success.

The following rules should be adopted by each club, viz:

1. Any boy or girl living in Christian county, between the ages of 10 and 18 years may become a member.

2. Each member must secure at least one pig.

3. Each member must care for his stock in person, and keep a record of food given and pasture grazed. He must keep a record of the weight of each pig when it comes into his hands, and at stated intervals, so he can determine the gains.

4. Record blanks, which will be furnished, should be filled out and certified by two disinterested persons.

5. Each member must own and keep a record of his pig for at least "4" months in order to compete for prizes.

6. The members of the Club must secure and study instructions of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

7. Each member must show at least "1" pig at the Pennyroyal Fair.

A number of pure bred hogs have already been subscribed by the liberal citizens of Christian county. A complete list of these prizes will be published at a later date. In addition to the local prizes, which will be awarded at the Pennyroyal Fair, the State Fair Association determined Friday, May 7th, that one boy or girl from the Pig Club of Christian county will be given a free trip to the Boys' Encampment at the State Fair. The boy or girl whose pig makes the largest net gain at the lowest cost of production up to Sept. 10th will be chosen from this county to represent the Christian County Pig Club at the Boys' Encampment.

In order to take advantage of this offer from the state, it is further stipulated by the Fair Association, that each county must have at least "15" members to the Pig Club. Boys and girls wishing to enter this contest should send their names to the County Agent, S. E. Puckett, at their earliest opportunity, giving their ages and P. O. addresses.

Make Your Work Interesting.

Do not look on your work as a dull duty. If you choose you can make it interesting. Throw your heart into it, master its meaning, trace out the causes and previous history, consider it in all its bearings, think how many even the humblest labor may benefit, and there is scarcely one of our duties which we may not look to with enthusiasm. You will get to love your work, and if you do it with delight you will do it with ease. Even if at first you find this impossible, if for a time it seems mere drudgery, this may be what you require; it may be good like mountain air to brace up your character.—Lord Avebury.

RATIONS FOR WORK HORSES AND MULES

A Standardbred at a Government Remount Depot.

(Prepared by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.)

The selection of a ration for horses and mules in the South depends largely upon the kinds of feed available, the prices of the feed, and the amount and character of the work. For a 1,000 or 1,100 pound horse at moderate work a daily ration of from 10 to 12 pounds of grain and from 12 to 14 pounds of hay should be ample. At light work the grain ration should be increased. For a horse at moderate work weighing from 1,000 to 1,100 pounds the following rations will be found satisfactory. These rations are to be divided into three feeds. Nearly one-half of the roughage should be fed at night and the remainder divided between the morning and noon feeds. The grain may be divided into three equal portions, to be fed morning, noon and night.

Ten pounds oats; fourteen pounds mixed hay.

Ten pounds shelled corn or corn meal or twelve and one-half pounds forenoon, before and after their dinner, and before and after their evening meal.

If possible, after the horses have finished their evening feed, they should be turned out in a lot where they can roll and get water at will during the night. This applies especially during hot weather.

The selection of a ration and general care of horses depends largely on local conditions, and the United States department of agriculture advises the farmer to get in touch with the county demonstration agent whenever he is in doubt regarding the best methods of handling stock. In case there is no county agent the farmer should write the state agricultural station for information.

COTTONSEED MEAL FOR EGGS

Substitute for Beef Scraps Should Be Kept Before Hens All the Time in a Self-Feeder.

(By F. C. HARE, Clemson Agricultural College.)

A dry mash for winter egg production in which cottonseed meal is used as a substitute for beef scraps to supply protein is made up as follows:

Cottonseed meal ..... 100 pounds
Corn meal ..... 50 pounds
Ground oats ..... 50 pounds
Wheat bran ..... 50 pounds
Wheat shorts ..... 50 pounds
Ground lime rock ..... 16 pounds
Ground charcoal ..... 12 pounds
Salt ..... 2 pounds

Keep it in the house before the hens all the time in a self-feeder, or in a low flat box covered with slats or wire netting so the hens cannot scratch it out. The ground lime rock is fertilizer lime, not the burnt lime used for whitewashing. The ground charcoal can be left out if it cannot be readily obtained, but always add the salt.

This mash contains from 18 to 20 per cent protein, which makes it a food for egg production equal to the most expensive commercial egg mashes. It requires several days for the hens to become accustomed to this mash, but they soon develop a fondness for it and eat it greedily.

VINE PRUNING IN THE SOUTH

Proper Time to Work on Grapes is in Spring, Just Before Growth Starts—Leaves Stop Bleeding.

(By C. M. SCHULTZ.)

In the South the only time to prune the ordinary grapes is just before growth starts in the spring. Then the leaves will soon stop the bleeding. One spring in North Carolina the weather turned hot the first of March and the vines that had been pruned in the fall made shoots six inches long while those that had not been pruned hardly swelled the buds.

The last week in the month the mercury suddenly fell with a norther to 20 degrees above zero and the shoots on the pruned vines were frozen. After the freeze I pruned my grapes and had a normal growth, while those around me hardly got half a crop. I had learned this from seasons years before, when I had seen the same thing. But the Scuppernon must be pruned in November or December as it bleeds worse than the cluster grapes.

Sow Hog Lot to Artichokes.

Part of the hog lot should be sown to artichokes or rape. This forage crop will afford a large part of the living for a bunch of pigs. If they have shade and water, they will be apt to show growth and good health all summer. One ration a day of grain will be ample until fattening time in the fall.

Protection for Skunks.

The high prices paid for skunk fur has caused a great demand for skins and in some parts of the South the animals are being protected by wire fences built around their favorite haunts. The skunk ought to be protected because it is always feeding on the enemies of farm crops. In many states they are protected by law.

Cottonseed Meal to Hogs.

Cottonseed meal, if it is fed at all to hogs, must be given in limited quantities.

SERVE CROUTONS WITH SOUP

They Increase Fat Content Very Slightly—Many Odd Flavors That May Be Utilized

The fat content of all soups can be increased by using with them some kind of croutons of dry bread cut into butter or fat. Cut into dice or julienne strips, they may be brushed with butter and browned in the oven, or sautéed in a skillet, then served floating in the soup. Croutons also brings up the fat and makes a pleasing garnish to almost all cream soups. There are many odd flavors which can be utilized as, for instance, pimiento, which makes a piquant flavor when added to a cream soup. One of the most delicious cream soups is made of corn and served with buttered croutons. Another attractive garnish, and, indeed, the cream soup offers endless possibilities.

Russian Consch.—The basis is a very strong beef stock, flavored with whole cloves, peppercorn, bay leaf and a few allspices. Peel beets and cut into julienne strips. Boil direct in the beef stock, which becomes highly colored from the juice. Serve in individual plates with a garnish of sour cream.

Lentil Purée.—Two cupsful dry lentil beef stock, two tablespoonfuls butter, two tablespoonfuls flour; salt, pepper, nutmeg. Soak lentils over night, drain, boil in stock until tender. Rub through a sieve and combine with butter and flour mixture, browned together in skillet, season, and if liked, serve with cooked frankfurter in each plate.

NATIONAL SOUP OF FRANCE

Delicious and Nourishing Is That Preparation Known to World as Pot-au-Feu.

Pot-au-feu, which may be called the national French soup, is a delicious nourishing soup. It should be made in a covered earthenware pot.

Take three pounds of round of beef, a large marrow bone, six carrots, two or three turnips, two leeks, a bunch of parsley, several cloves, a bay leaf and one lump of sugar. Put the beef into the pot and cover it with as many quarts of water as there are pounds of beef, add a little salt and let it boil up, then skim carefully and add a little cold water. Let it boil again, skim and then add the vegetables. Cover with the lid, allowing a little air to get in, and let cook over a good fire constantly at boiling point for several hours. When cooked, remove the meat and vegetables, skim the liquor, and serve in a tureen with slices of bread. The vegetables may be served separately, and the meat which has been cooked in the pot may be used in many ways; stewed, cooked au gratin; it is especially delicious served with thick tomato sauce.

Baked Ham and Eggs.

Chop or grind trimmings of cold ham; put a rounding tablespoonful of butter into a saucepan and when melted stir in a level tablespoonful of flour a teaspoonful of vinegar, a dash of cayenne and one-fourth level teaspoonful of mustard; let cook until thick and simmer a little, then stir in a much ham as the seasonings will take up; stir until heated, turn into baking dish and make several depressions in the top; into each depression break one egg, dust with salt and set in the oven until the white of the egg is set; serve in same dish.

Mocha Gems.

Cream two teaspoonfuls of butter and one of sugar, add one egg well beaten. Mix one cupful of coffee and one-half cupful of milk, add it alternately with one and one-half cupful of flour mixed and sifted with one and one-half teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Then heat in one cupful of rolled oats. Pour into hot-buttered glass pans and bake 20 minutes in a hot oven.

Boston Cookies.

Mix thoroughly three well-beaten eggs, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, one and one-half cupfuls of raisins seeded and chopped fine, one cupful of butter, one-half teaspoonful of soda, a little salt, half a nutmeg and stiffen with flour enough to spread on thin. The dough should not be molded or rolled.

Corn Croquettes.

Put one can of corn through the meat grinder, add one teaspoonful melted butter, one of sugar, salt to taste and the yolk of one egg. Stir in just enough flour to bind the ingredients together so that the croquettes will hold their shape. Fry in deep fat.

Potato Loaf.

Five potatoes, one quart milk, onion to taste, also salt, pepper and two tablespoonfuls of butter. Cook milk and onion in double boiler. Boil and mash potatoes, add to milk, then add seasoning and thicken with a little flour if it seems very thin.

Old Southern Cake.

One cupful of honey, one cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of melted butter, two eggs, one pint flour, one cupful milk, one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of mace. Mix till smooth and bake in a moderately hot oven 3 or 35 minutes.

For Wine Stains.

Wine stains which have dried on the table cloth or napkins should be rubbed with a few drops of whisky before the linen is sent to the laundry.

The Lesson of the Past

This master of the pen shows you the story that was Greece's and the grandeur that was Rome's. He guides you through the Middle Ages, the picturesque old days of feudalism and the crusades; through the Renaissance up to contemporary history, which Prof. Duruy completes in brilliant manner. In the story of the past lie the secrets of today. And you will understand them better when you get the Review of Reviews for a year—for the Review of Reviews will give you a sane interpretation of the events that are taking place with such rapidity. It is not enough to read the daily news reports. Your ability to comprehend conditions, and to discuss them rationally depends on a true interpretation of the meaning and the "reason why" of events. In your mind you must bring order out of chaos—and the Review of Reviews will do it for you.

ADD TO WINTER MENU

APPETIZING PREPARATIONS FOR THE COLD DAYS.

All Are Recipes of Recognized Worth and Are Sure to Be Appreciated by the Family or the Household Guests.

Celery Fritters.—Beat one egg until very light; add one-half cupful of sweet milk, two teaspoonfuls of butter, one saltspoonful of salt and enough flour to make almost a drop batter. Beat it thoroughly and let it stand an hour or more to swell the flour. Beat again before using. Cut the celery into inch pieces and cook in boiling water (salted) until tender. Drain and stir it into a fritter batter. Drop by spoonfuls into deep fat.

Honey Gingerbread.—Four cupfuls of flour, two heaping teaspoonfuls of baking powder, two heaping teaspoonfuls of powdered ginger, half a cupful of Sultana raisins, half a cupful of preserved cherries, a quarter of a cupful of chopped citron peel, half a cupful of butter, three-quarters of a cupful of honey, two eggs, a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt and a quarter of a cupful of milk. Sift the flour, salt, baking powder and ginger into a basin, add the raisins, the peel and cherries cut in halves. Melt the butter, honey and milk together in a saucepan, then cool and add to the flour with the eggs well beaten. Mix, turn into a buttered and floured cake tin and bake.

Chicken Pot Pie.—Cut and joint a large chicken, cover with water and let it boil gently until tender; season with salt and pepper and thicken the gravy with two tablespoonfuls of flour mixed smooth in a piece of butter the size of an egg. Have ready nice light bread dough, cut with a biscuit cutter an inch thick; drop this into the boiling gravy, having previously removed the chicken to a hot platter; cover and let them boil for half to three-quarters of an hour. Ascertain they are done, lay them on platter with the chicken, pour over the gravy and serve.

Clams on Toast.—Chop a dozen clams and boil them five minutes in their liquor; drain and add to them two tablespoonfuls of fine crumbs, a tablespoonful of butter, salt and pepper to taste and a gill of milk in which one-half tablespoonful of cornstarch has been dissolved. Stir constantly over the fire until the mixture boils, then add a gill of cream; stir for a moment longer and pour upon the toast.

Candied Potato.—Peel and slice thin two or three medium sized potatoes or one large one. Put in a stewpan with enough water to cover. Cook until potatoes can be pierced with a straw, then pour in one cupful of sugar and cook until a thick sirup is formed and the potatoes have a clear look. Do not stir while cooking.

Tongue Fingers.—Fine to use up cold tongue after it has been served hot braised for dinner and then cold sliced, etc. Grate nearly a cupful (over a half) of the remains of a cold tongue very fine and mix it with the yolk of an egg, a large spoonful of cream and finely chopped parsley, dash of salt and pepper. Heat thoroughly and pour on some prepared narrow strips of buttered toast. Then sprinkle thickly with fine bread crumbs stirred in a little melted butter, with a shake of paprika, and brown quickly in a hot oven.

Apple Grunt.
This is an old Dutch recipe: Six good-sized apples peeled and sliced, one cupful of molasses, one cupful of sugar, a little salt and cinnamon. Make a dough of one scant pint of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful cream tartar, one-half teaspoonful salt. Rub one-half teaspoonful of shortening into flour and mix with buttermilk or sour milk to make it right to roll. Put one-half of the apples in a deep agate pan or kettle, season with one-half cupful molasses, one-half cupful sugar, salt and cinnamon. Divide the dough into two parts and roll one-half to size to cover apples. Put in another layer of apples with remainder of molasses, sugar, salt and cinnamon. Cover with other half of dough, with slits cut in top. Put in one cupful of hot water, cover closely and cook on top of stove from thirty to forty-five minutes, taking care not to scorch.

Brown Potato Soup.
Peel and dice about five medium-sized potatoes and cut up a little celery; cook in salted water until tender. Put into a hot iron skillet a teaspoonful each of butter and nice lard, and when melted rub into it two tablespoonfuls of flour; keep rubbing and stirring this about in the hot pan until well browned and quite granular. Now be sure the soup is bubbling rapidly when the browned flour is to be sifted in slowly while stirring rapidly; allow to boil for a few minutes and serve.

Fish Chops.
One can salmon, one-quarter cupful fine bread crumbs, one-half teaspoonful salt, one cupful thick white sauce, one egg well beaten. Pick the fish with a silver fork and mix with sauce and salt. Beat well and form into chops. Dip into egg, then into crumbs and fry.

Golden Duck.
Prepare a nice Welsh rarebit, spread on slices of toast and place a poached egg on each slice. Garnish with water-cress.

CAP and BELLS

HOW DID HE KNOW THE SIZE?

Happy Thought Comes to Assistance of Young Man Who Wished to Purchase Jeweled Belt.

A man who had recently become engaged to a charming young girl chanced to be in a fashionable shop when his eye caught a glimpse of a jeweled belt that seemed to him an acceptable gift for his fiancée. He asked a clerk to place an assortment of the belts on the counter.

"Ladies' belt?" queried the polite salesman. "Certainly, sir; what size?" The young man blushed. "Really," he stammered, "I don't know." And he gazed about him helplessly for a moment or so. Finally a happy thought appeared to strike him. "Can't you let me have a yardstick for a moment?" he asked. The yardstick being forthcoming, he placed it along the inside of his arm from shoulder to wrist. Then, looking up at the clerk, he exclaimed triumphantly, "Twenty inches."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Not in His Line.
Manager (of intelligence office)—What kind of a place would you like? Cook Lady—Oh, a place where I can have anything I want, with but little to do and no one to boss me. Manager—You have strayed into the wrong place. This is an employment office, not a matrimonial agency.

Knew Her.
"Can I see the manager?" asked the caller. "Why, he's just been called to the telephone," replied the assistant. "Will he be long?" "His wife said she just wanted to speak to him for a minute. I guess he'll be back in an hour."

Reason for Speed.
Rankin—Reabrough has bought himself a $5,000 racing car. Phyle—But he couldn't afford one worth half that amount. Rankin—That's why he bought it. He wants something that can go fast enough to keep away from the collectors.—Puck.

Hadn't Noticed.
First Gurgle—Did you notice that good-looking fellow who sat right back of us at the Orpheum? Second Gurgle—Oh, the handsome chap with the red necktie and tan suit, who wore his hair pompadour? No. Why?—Nebraska Awgwan.

To the Point.
Her Father—Young man, I must ask your object in coming here so often? Young Man—I love your daughter, sir. She is adorable, a queen. Her Father—Then, I take it, your object is to become her subject. Very well, she's yours.

MORE IMPORTANT.

Wangs—What are Brown's chances in the coming election? Bangs—Very slight. He hasn't anything back of him. Wangs—He's got a family tree. Bangs—Yes, but his opposition has the plum tree.

College Life.
"Yes, some of us fellows keep house at the fraternity home." "Don't you hate to wash dishes?" "We don't have to. We have plenty of candidates for the fraternity, and dishwashing is great as an initiation stunt."

Too Risky.
"Why didn't you employ that beautiful stenographer?" "Didn't care to take the risk. She was sure to break a lot of hearts in the office, and then I s'pose I'd be held under the employers' liability law."

PROCESS OF STEWING

REGULATION OF HEAT IS THE MAIN CONSIDERATION.

On That Account It Is Best to Use Gas, When Possible—Glazed Earthenware Jar Should Be Receptacle Employed.

Stewing is a method of food preparation that approaches the soup-making process. It is to some extent a proceeding that occupies a middle position between boiling and baking; the latter is often called roasting. In stewing, the cook's endeavor should be to extract from the meat its nutritive juices, and then to employ those juices, suitably treated, to finish cooking the remainder of the meat. For successful stewing, the most important point is the power of regulating the heat at which the operation is conducted. In order to stew successfully the heat must be absolutely under the cook's control. The up-to-date cook, therefore, prefers gas for stewing purposes on account of the perfect control that can be exercised over the temperature.

For successful stewing, meat should be divided into small portions for the easy extraction of the juices. Where bones exist, these should be broken into small pieces, and form an under layer in the stewing vessel. The meat and bones ought always to be placed in cold water and the water should cover everything in the pan or jar. The lid or cover should be carefully secured, and the temperature must be gradually raised to a steady heat, which must, of course, be below boiling. The extraction of the meat juices then proceeds, and when vegetables are to be added to the stew they are placed in the vessel at a later stage. Boiling and stewing are by no means the same process. The proper temperature for stewing is about 180 degrees Fahr. As almost everybody knows, the boiling point is 212 Fahr.

A glazed earthenware jar with a tight-fitting cover is most useful for stewing meat, or for making soups. If it has no cover, one should be constructed by fitting a plate or saucer on top of the jar and brown paper should then be tied over it. A jar with a cover saves this trouble, and is, therefore, worth the extra expense. Earthenware or stone jars are very easily kept clean, and food does not spoil when left in them, as it may do if left in a metal pan. They can be placed on the top of the stove or in the oven when it is necessary to reheat the food contained in them, or if placed in a pan of boiling water the contents of the jar will cook slowly without attention from the cook. A meat stew can be served in the jar in which it has been cooked, if it is neither too large nor too high. It must, of course, be wiped dry and a napkin may be neatly folded around it. By this process the great advantage of a very hot dinner may be obtained in the coldest weather, even when the whole family does not reach the home at exactly the same hour, as a stone or earthenware jar, having been thoroughly heated, will retain the heat for some time.—American Cookery.

Lobster Cutlets.
Melt one teaspoonful of butter, add two tablespoonfuls of flour and cook thoroughly. Add one cupful of boiling water and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add two cupfuls of chopped lobster meat. Season with salt, paprika, lemon juice and minced parsley. Take from the fire, add the beaten yolk of an egg and cool. Shape into cutlets, dip into egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat. Stick a lobster claw into the small end of each cutlet.

Bean Pot Roast.
Take one pound of beef, a cheap cut is just as good if it is free from veins. Cut in pieces about an inch square. Put in all the fat, too. Put in a bean pot, just cover with water and put in the oven. As water boils away add a little more. When about half done add a little salt. When ready to serve take from oven and put it in the spider. Thicken with a little flour mixed with water. The gravy is a rich brown.

Miniature Cattle.
The smallest cows in the world are found in the Samoan Islands. The average weight does not exceed 150 pounds, while the bulls weigh about 200 pounds. They are about the size of a Merino sheep.

Yesterday Afternoon And Spent
The Night In The City.

GOT DUST OUT OF THROATS.

*And At 8 O'clock a Talkfest
Was Indulged In At Virginia Park.

The Tennessee Boosters, comprising an organization of 100 Nashville business men, arrived here last night and spent the night. They came late in the afternoon and were received by a committee and there was music by their own band.

The speaking program was taken up at 8 o'clock at Virginia Park, where addresses of welcome were made and the Boosters put forward several of their own orators to tell how glad they were to be back in Hopkinsville once more.

They will leave early this morning in their special train.

Col. W. P. Walton.

Col. W. P. Walton, editor of the Lexingtonian and one of the best-known journalists in Kentucky, is a candidate for Secretary of State and has issued the following appeal to voters:

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

When I announced my candidacy for Secretary of State in December last, I stated that I did not enter the race at the urgent solicitation of friends, but of my own volition. The fact was nobody had asked me to run, but the proffers of support that I immediately received, and am still receiving seem to indicate that a large body of voters was getting ready to urge me to enter.

My reasons for becoming a candidate were that I feel fully capable of filling the office with credit and ability, and a desire to be of real service to the State and party that I have so long and so cheerfully given my best support, without previous to this time seeking or desiring reward. I now ask the Democrats to gratify my ambition, promising if they do, to discharge the duties of the office in a manner that will reflect credit on it and them.

My Democracy is unquestioned; I have never faltered in my support of its men and measures; I have tried to live a life above reproach and to be of service to my day and generation. I have never held or sought office, but I do want to be Secretary of State, and trust my brother Democrats will give me that support which will insure my nomination, to be the forerunner of a triumphant election.

W. P. WALTON.

"Let us Save The Kiddies."

London, May 14.—"There is one incident the world will remember in connection with the sinking of the Lusitania," said the bishop of London while presiding at a meeting of the Waifs and Stray society. "When Alfred G. Vanderbilt was face to face with death he said to his vessel: 'Come and let us save the kiddies.' These words will run around the world in a way no millionaire's could ever do."

Dogwood Dots.

Dogwood, May 14.—The farmers are about through planting corn and it is coming up tolerably well. The crop is being cultivated between showers.

Tobacco plants are scarce in this section—almost a failure—and the prospects are that not more than a third of a crop will be put out.

Wheat is looking badly. We heard a farmer say that he had the same ground in wheat this year that he had last year, which produced about 175 bushels, and that from present prospects he would not make 50 bushels this year.

Uncle Babe Barnes is very ill, suffering from kidney disease. He was 83 years old last Sunday.

The apple crop looks now like it might be almost a failure. The little apples dropped off with the bloom.

Some peach trees are full of young peaches, while others have none on them.

Plums and cherries will be plentiful.

Blackberry winter brought no frost in our locality.

Dewberry vines and blackberry bushes are loaded with blossoms and prospects are good for a large crop.

Aunt Caroline Barnes, of Kelly, died May 4, in her 94th year. The interment took place in the Boyd cemetery.

Nearly every farmer in this section sustained loss by the storm. Joseph Duin, of Fruit Hill, had his new tobacco barn lifted from its foundation. The doors were torn from the hinges and carried three hundred yards.

William Woodburn, of Henderson, has been visiting his brother, R. L. Woodburn, of Kelly, and other relatives in this section for the past two weeks.
